Culture in Australia

Presented by:

Sahil Verma

Food

Most popular food in Australia includes meat pies, chiko rolls, dim sims, fish, vegetables & fruits.

Styles of Dress

- Traditional clothing in Australia is said to be that of swagmen and bushmen of the past.
- They wore long trousers, buttoned sleeves, strong leather boots, and hats with corks hanging from the brim to keep away flies.

Social Etiquette

GIFT GIVING ETIQUETTE

- A good quality bottle of wine is always appreciated.
- if invited to someone's home for dinner, it is polite to bring a box of chocolates, bottle of wine or flowers to your hosts.

Meeting Etiquette

A handshake, smile & a simple "hello, how are you" should suffice.

DINING ETIQUETTE

- The Aussie 'barbie' (BBQ) is an important part of Australian social culture.
- The most common social invitations are for BBQs.
